

08/17/07 - Sad and HAPPY!!!

First the Happy part...

We got to see our Baby in a ultrasound today!

It's getting big! and as far as I can tell it looks ok

We saw it's heart beating and we even got to watch it sucking its thumb!

Sad part..

We are missing this weekend AGAIN!

Becky said we could have gone, but with 1 month till the baby's due I did not think it was a good idea to go to a outdoor concert with 3k people LOL. NEXT YEAR WE WILL BE THERE! (Maybe with Baby Ashihara?? Do they make ear plugs small enough? LOL)
